Each crossword-style clue yields a four letter answer; the word search contains a five letter word for each such answer built by adding a letter to the 4-letter answer to create another word. These extra letters taken in the order the crossword clues are given yield the phrase "Scrabble Premiums." When players take the letters occurring on scrabble premium spaces of a certain type on the word search (Triple Word, Triple Letter, Double Word, Double Letter), they get one of four substrings, which when combined yields WHICHORI/GINALCLUEANSWERHA/STHETOPSCORE/INTERMSOFITSLATTERVALUES "Zoos" has the highest letter score of any of the original answers.
