Good job on making it to your third rendezvous point. Since you were taking so long to get here, we thought we'd do some research to aid you in your pursuit of Dr. Dement. We managed to track down Dr. Dement's old college roommate, and we were going to have you talk to him in person.... but after 30 minutes, you still weren't here, so we let him go home. Anyway, since you've got the Networking Toolkit, we uploaded a transcript of our conversation to the Cranea central computer. Just type transcript nmroyiry to download it.

He also gave us an old psych profile of Dement. Maybe it will be of some use to you.
